Wedding Invitation Wording

Here are some samples of wording we recommend and which cover most of the circumstances that can arise. As well as the traditional forms of presentation we have included a variety of optional wordings which we hope you will like. But if you know what you would like and it isn't here then email us with your own wording requirements and we will add them to your order.

As with selecting typestyles, simply make a note of the identifier or 'W Number' next to the wording sample of your choice and add it to the 'options box' on the order page for your invitation set and it will be automatically added to your order.
